WHO WAS CY RAMAGE?
AND WHY DID WE NAME A TOURNAMENT AFTER HIM?

By Tom Smart (2011)

"Smiling Big Cy Ramage" was not a charter member of SDCSGA, but joined in 1952 and quickly became Tournament Chairman, a job he held for about 25 years. He was very active in golf and knew all the golf Pro's and all the courses and arranged the SDCSGA monthly tournaments. He was asked to serve as President numerous times but always refused, preferring to run the Tournaments instead. However, he finally weakened and was elected President in 1980-1981. He died on November 12, 1981.

Cy was born in 1902 in San Luis Obispo and moved to San Diego when he was 10. He was quite a baseball player and played first base for various teams in the Pacific Coast League. His brother Lee Ramage was a boxer and became a heavyweight contender, and is now honored in the San Diego "Hall of Champions" museum in Balboa Park.

Probably the most popular SDCSGA tournament, back then and now, is our annual Low Ball of Partners event created by Cy. Shortly after his death the tournament was named after him.

In the December, 1981 edition of Tee Time the memory of Cy was eulogized by new president Lowell Reeve when he said..."Cy will be missed not only as a cherished friend and golfing companion of so many of us, but also because of the invaluable assistance he gave to us. He knew so many people in golfing circles. His leadership, companionship and dedication to the Seniors was immeasurable."

Rod Cameron one of the founding fathers of SDCSGA, and who our other major tournament is named after, called Cy the "life blood of the membership." And also said..."He was a devoted worker whose efforts, not only in the early days but in later years, helped greatly to keep the organization alive."
